

Minnesota BCA – Search Warrant Information:

According to Rani's school, there were "Multiple Emergency Contact" phone numbers provided:

Sergeant Gummert told your Affiant that he reviewed documents at the school the Crowley's child attended and learned that the David and Komel Crowley had multiple emergency contact numbers on file at the school. One of David Crowley's emergency contact numbers was 612-999-4890. Your Affiant checked the FoneFinder website and found that the service provider for phone number 612-999-4890 was AT&T.

Sergeant Gummert told your Affiant that he reviewed documents at the school the Crowley's child attended and learned that the David and Komel Crowley had multiple emergency contact numbers on file at the school. One of David Crowley's emergency contact numbers was (214) 470-5794. Your Affiant checked the Clear database website and found that the service provider for phone number (214) 470-5794 was T-Mobile.

Sergeant Gummert told your Affiant that he reviewed documents at the school the Crowley's child attended and learned that the David and Komel Crowley had multiple emergency contact numbers on file at the school. One of Komel Crowley's emergency contact numbers was 651-333-0072. Your Affiant checked the FoneFinder website and found that the service provider for phone number (651) 333-0072 was AT&T.

---

From the AVPD Police report, page 36:

When Ms. Wallick was asked about emergency contacts on [REDACTED] school form, she stated that the [REDACTED] had not advised of any emergency contacts and as a matter of fact, when they were asked about adding an emergency contact, or a list of people who would be authorized to pick [REDACTED] up from school, they were told that there was no family in the area that would be added as an emergency contact and that the family was alone.